Fickle Finger of the Judge

The "footstool robbery" of a branch bank in Hollywood on 11/6/59 was perpetrated by two men. One of them placed a footstool in front of a teller cage, stepped up on it and reached over the partition to snatch money bags. The other held the bank employees and customers at bay with a gun.

Through adroit investigation and use of informants, the robbers were one by one identified, with JOHN EDWARD LOPEZ, aka JOHN EDWARD DONATONI, manager of a cheap waterfront bar, being the first to fall. The arrest of WALDO P. WOOD, aka "SWEENEY," identified by witnesses as the man who stood on the footstool, followed.

LOPEZ and WOOD were scheduled to go to trial in the court of Federal District Judge THURMOND CLARKE in Los Angeles today. As it turned out, though, only LOPEZ is in court this day, and he faces a substitute judge. CALIF

Prosecution is proceeding without the help or the hindrance of WALDO WOOD whose good fortune it was to be tipped off that Judge CLARKE would not be on the bench today.

The story about this was in part disgustingly told by Assistant U.S. Attorney TIMOTHY M. THORNTON, and the rest unfolded before the eyes of investigating SAs.

Judge CLARKE's clerk telephoned WALDO WOOD's attorney last Thursday to ask if the defense would be ready for trial as scheduled 2/16/60. The attorney said they were ready, and the clerk mentioned that the case would necessarily be before a judge other than CLARKE. The defense attorney exploded at this news. He was so desirous of keeping his client in Judge CLARKE's court that Friday morning he and WOOD appeared there and changed WOOD's plea from not guilty to guilty.

Over the vigorous protest of Assistant U.S. Attorney THORNTON, who argued that WOOD's sentence should not be set until the judge had opportunity to obtain a pre-sentence probationary report, CLARKE forthwith passed sentence on WOOD, giving him five years in prison.

THORNTON and investigating agents were understandably chagrined, despite the fact they half expected CLARKE would give probation, because whatever leverage they had on WOOD which would help solidify the case against his confederate was dissolved. The agents had lost their opportunity to obtain a signed statement while WOOD was still wooing the court - a serious loss, as any investigator well knows.

However, on Friday they visited WOOD in a final attempt to do what they could with him. He was complimentary to the Bureau - in a left-handed sort of way - when he admitted, "I guess I got out of my weight league." Beyond that, because as he said he had nothing to gain since he had already been sentenced, he goaded his interrogators, saying he did have one statement for them. It was "Goodbye."

Like Judge CLARKE is reported to have commented, he is a soft judge -- but he does clear the dockets, an accomplishment of which he proudly boasts.

~~ROCK HUDSON~~

Dep of Dist
11/17/25 Winnetka, Ill
Summary
Calif

Rock Hudson has not been the subject of an FBI investigation. During 1965, however, a confidential informant reported that several years ago while he was in New York he had an "affair" with movie star Rock Hudson. The informant stated that from personal knowledge he knew that Rock Hudson was a homosexual. The belief was expressed that by "personal knowledge" the informant meant he had personally indulged in homosexual acts with Hudson or had witnessed or received the information from individuals who had done so. (62-110654-4)

On another occasion, information was received by the Los Angeles Office of the FBI that it was common knowledge in the motion picture industry that Rock Hudson was suspected of having homosexual tendencies.

It is to be noted in May, 1961, a confidential source in New York also stated that Hudson definitely was a homosexual.

Our files contain no additional pertinent information identifiable with Mr. Hudson.

The fingerprint files of the Identification Division of the FBI contain no arrest data identifiable with Mr. Hudson based upon background information submitted in connection with this name check request.

NOTE: Per request of Mrs. Mildred Stegall, White House Staff.

BACKGROUND:

As previously noted, Euan Lloyd Productions, Ltd., an English motion picture organization, has for some time planned a motion picture based on a fictional story concerning a kidnaping case entitled "The Seven File," which was written by William P. McGivern in the mid 1950's. The screen play has also been written by McGivern and is closely based on the book with the only basic change being the locale of the story being moved from New York to Chicago. We have been following developments with respect to this matter for a number of years.

Briefly, the story involves the kidnaping for ransom of an infant daughter of a wealthy couple by two ex-convicts, a confidence man and his girlfriend. The kidnapers' plans are disrupted by the child's nurse whom they are also forced to kidnap. The infant's grandfather calls the FBI into the case despite the kidnapers' admonition not to do so. The FBI's investigation is directed by an Inspector and reflects very favorably and accurately on Bureau operations. The point is made throughout the story that the safe return of the baby and nurse is the FBI's primary interest. At the hideout where the kidnap victim is being held, the brother of one of the kidnapers innocently stumbles on the scene and is held. At the climax of the story, the kidnapers have a falling out, the con man and his girlfriend are killed by the convict, who is in turn killed by his brother. The child and nurse are returned safely.

CURRENT DEVELOPMENT:

According to our Los Angeles Office, an item appeared in the "Hollywood Reporter" on 7-9-69 indicating that Rock Hudson, Britt Eklund, and Brendon Boone are scheduled to appear in this film.

The files of the Los Angeles Office and Bufiles fail to reflect any information identifiable with actress Britt Eklund or Brendon Boone; however, our files indicate that Rock Hudson, a prominent leading man, has been alleged to be a homosexual and/or bisexual.

On 10/3/67, [REDACTED] Creative Management Agency, 9255 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California, advised SA [REDACTED] that Mr. FOREMAN is the agent for actor ROCK HUDSON. She said Mr. FOREMAN currently was not available but that she was acquainted with Mr. HUDSON's business matters.

Creative Management Agency, 9255 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California, advised on 10/26/67 that neither Mr. ROCK HUDSON nor Mr. JOHN FOREMAN (HUDSON's agent) have received scripts of the motion picture "The Quiet Couple." [REDACTED] said Mr. HUDSON tentatively is scheduled to depart for Italy on 11/6/67 to appear in this film and is concerned that the script has not arrived. She said Mr. HUDSON will not leave until the script has arrived and until he places his stamp of approval on the role.

[REDACTED] feels certain that HUDSON's role is not that of an FBI agent and that "Daily Variety" was in error in so describing the role.

[REDACTED] said she will contact this office as soon as the script is received so that definite information concerning the role will be available.

Los Angeles will closely follow this matter.

Re Los Angeles airtel dated 10/30/67.

[REDACTED] (ROCK HUDSON), Creative Management Agency, 9255 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California, advised SA [REDACTED] that a completed script of the motion picture "The Quiet Couple" had never been received by this agency. [REDACTED] said it is not unusual for pictures being made by the Italian film industry to have scripts written almost simultaneous with the filming, and that this is apparently the situation in instant film.

[REDACTED] advised that she had reviewed all story outlines and suggestions which had been received by Mr. FOREMAN and the Creative Management Agency from the Chistaldi Film Company, producer of the film, and could definitely state that Mr. HUDSON's role in the film is that of a New York Police Department Officer working on an assignment in Italy and is not that of an FBI Agent. She said the film currently is in production in Italy.
